About Tales to Share

Tales to Share is a series of storytelling workshops supported by the Association for Progressive Communications (APC). The aim of the workshop is to build safe spaces for creative expression and collaboration with participants drawn from diverse backgrounds and experiences.

The materials presented here were produced by participants and facilitators in the February 2020 workshop.

This publication is a part of EROTICS South Asia's Bangladesh work.

তার মায়ের খুব আদরের হলো
তুলি আমাদের বোন না
তুলি করলো কি: একটা গান গাইলো
মারজুক কবি, মারজুক কবিতার লোক
কয়েক দিনেই চলে যাবে
ঘুম ভাঙলো: বললাম আমি তোমাদের সন্তান
আমার জন্মের প্রমান নেই: তো আমি কে ?

About the Association for Progressive Communications (APC)

APC is an international network of civil society organisations founded in 1990 dedicated to empowering and supporting people working for peace, human rights, development and protection of the environment, through the strategic use of information and communication technologies (ICTs). We work to build a world in which all people have easy, equal and affordable access to the creative potential of ICTs to improve their lives and create more democratic and egalitarian societies.

About Exploratory Research on Sexuality and the Internet (EROTICS)

EROTICS is a network of activists and researchers working on the intersections of sexuality and the internet. It is an APC project. Funded by AmplifyChange, APC expanded the project under the banner “Building EROTICS Networks in South Asia” spanning Bangladesh, India, Nepal and Sri Lanka. In Bangladesh, the project primarily focuses on sexual expression and rights in digital spaces.
